We welcome the Foxton, Shannon and Rongotea Parishes to our Combined Newsletter

A year ago we produced our first Combined Newsletter. As Bishop Charles said when we launched this initiative .... This combined newsletter of our 3 parishes in Palmerston North City and our parish in Feilding is a small but symbolic act in favour of the new life and growth we are experiencing. My hope is that an occasional shared newsletter, far from weakening our particular identities will strengthen them as well as make us more aware of the beauty and strength of our wider faith community or iwi whakapono. In this way we come to learn more about ourselves, draw strength from the witness we bear to each other, and thus also grow in resolve to better serve our civic communities.

This year we include Rongotea, Foxton and Shannon, an exciting opportunity to strengthen our Manawatu Catholic Community.

By now we are well on our way through this season of repentance and renewal. The word of God today makes it clear that it's time to decide. It's a wholly positive choice that we are offered – to welcome the love that God has poured out on us in Christ – but still we hesitate, afraid to come forth out of the darkness into such wonderful light.

Could we be condemning ourselves to a kind of exile, like that suffered by God's people of old? The constant temptation for us is to hold fast to patterns of life simply because they are familiar, though they bring us no lasting joy. As much as we may lament our lot, we let fear paralyse us. Today we are offered the opportunity to open our eyes to the beauty and wonder of God's love for us in Christ. Dare we see ourselves, in that lovely phrase from the letter of the Ephesians, as "God's work of art"? How could we refuse such an invitation?

Psalm Response: (11 March) - *Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!
Fifth Sunday of Lent, 18 March 2018

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34; Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9; Gospel: John 12:20-33

Recently we celebrated the Rite of Election at the Cathedral, in which about a dozen catechumens and candidates for full communion from around the dioceses were named or presented to the Bishop. We are very fortunate to have Jess Lightbody from St Mary's Ruahine St, Shelly Gyde from St Mary's Foxton and Tiari Nicklin from the Cathedral Parish who have been named as among the Elect and the Chosen.

Now our task and joy is to accompany and encourage them in their Lenten preparation, with prayer and good works! Through the next weeks we have the privilege of celebrating the Scrutinies with them - these are powerful times of prayer that seek to bring to light anything within which may need liberation and healing while strengthening and encouraging that which is good within us! During the Easter Vigil at the Cathedral, Shelly and Tiari will be fully initiated with Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Miriam Thomson will join them in Confirmation and Eucharist as she is welcomed into full communion. Jess's Rites of Initiation will be celebrated at St Mary's on the 2nd Sunday of Easter! Thank you to all those parishioners, sponsors, catechists who are actively supporting them with prayer and fellowship in their journey to Easter and beyond.
